Grounded in shared values and a commitment to making a positive impact, Act4 LLC represents a powerful merger of expertise and vision.

With a strong foundation built on principles of integrity, quality, value, and a commitment to our customers, both J29 Inc. (J29) and C2C Innovative Solutions, Inc. (C2C) have established themselves as leaders in their respective domains. J29, founded by Tracy Mills, focuses on government contracting and healthcare solutions, rooted in a mission to empower employees to do great things for the benefit of others. Likewise, C2C, led by Jeff Peterson, boasts a team with deep knowledge of health insurance services, particularly in Medicare services, and other Governmental programs, with a strong dedication to a culture of honesty, reliability, and respect.

The collaboration under Act4 is named after the biblical Book of Acts, which emphasizes bold action and faith. In this spirit, Act4 brings together the strengths and shared culture of J29 and C2C to pursue innovative solutions, create value, and make a difference in the healthcare and government contracting landscape.
